

South Carolina Electric Transportation Network September Newsletter

In the News

Clean Energy: Report Shows in the Southeast, Electric Vehicles are Economic Development Engines
"Our region has captured 40% of the nation's EV assembly, EV parts, EV charging infrastructure, battery manufacturing, and battery recycling investments, and 35% of anticipated manufacturing jobs (totaling over 65,000)," writes Stan Cross, Electric Transportation Policy Director for the Southern Alliance for Clean Energy.

\(READ MORE\)

The Kingstree News: New poll finds growing support for SC's clean energy economy
"71% of South Carolina registered voters support development of renewable clean energy in SC. 67% believe it is important for South Carolina to grow and use renewable energy resources. 59% of voters agree that increasing our use of clean and renewable energy sources in South Carolina will create more jobs and encourage economic development throughout the state," writes Conservatives for Clean Energy- South Carolina for The Kingstree News.

\(READ MORE\)

Santee Cooper announces new EVolve grants to expand electric vehicle charging network
"Santee Cooper has awarded four new EVolve Grants to help Atlantic Beach, Brogdon Electric, Coastal Carolina Association of Realtors and Shoreham Towers II Homeowners Association expand the area's electric vehicle charging network," writes Ashley Rome of ABC 15 News.

\(READ MORE\)

Events

September 21

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Featured speakers: Laura Ray, assistant director at The Ray, Watershed Consulting Group, and Aaron Davis with Firefly Solar

SC Electric Transportation Network Monthly Call

September 23

9:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Drive Electric Columbia

September 23

12:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Charleston EV Ride and Drive

September 27
1:00 PM - 3:00 PM
Proterra Electric Bus Safety Training

October 4
9:00 AM - 5:00 PM
Southeast Rural Transportation Electrification Roundtable

Miss our last meeting?

August 17, 2023: WATCH IT HERE

Questions

Email Katie Hagan at Katie@CVSC.org